

President.
Secretary.
By-laws.

by the election of a president and a secretary shall have power to make all necessary by-laws and regulations for the convenient and efficient management and control of the affairs of said corporation, and to appoint from the said board of directors, or from the corporators generally, three trustees, who shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by said board of directors: the said trustees shall be subject to removal at the pleasure of the board of directors.

Trustees.

Corporate powers.

SEC. 4. That said corporation shall have power to adopt such measures as will enable it to afford protection and extend the benefits of education and correct training to all such orphans, unprotected and friendless children as may be entrusted to the care of said corporation by any lawful authority.

Corporate powers.

SEC. 5. That said corporation shall have power to receive, for the purposes of protection, education and right training all orphans, unprotected and friendless children, under such rules and regulations as said corporation may prescribe, and may discharge any of said children from said Orphan Home when, in the judgment of the board of directors of said corporation, it shall become necessary for the best interest of such child to be discharged, or for the advantage of the institution.

Corporate powers.

SEC. 6. Said corporation shall have power to secure control of such orphans, unprotected and friendless children, in such manner as may be provided by the by-laws of the corporation: and it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to interfere with the said Orphan Home of eastern North Carolina, in its management and control of said children after they are lawfully entered and received by said corporation: Provided, that the said institution shall be for children of the colored race only.

SEC. 7. This act shall be in force from its ratification.

In the general assembly read three times, and ratified this the 7th day of March, A. D. 1883.